

THIS IS NOT OUR HOME

JUNE 2, 2025

HEBREWS 13:14 KJV – (14) For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

Sometimes things don't pan out the way we'd hoped. Or perhaps we hit a bump in the road. People let us down and we don't feel like heaven meets earth and therefore, it's easy to feel that we were anywhere but here on earth!

Do not forget you are here for a purpose. You are here to make a difference. Let your light shine. I know its hard but get your focus aligned on Christ. Again, you are here to make a difference and one day the assignment will be over.

When the author of the book of Hebrews wrote that this world was not our home, he explained it because we, as believers, are looking forward to our everlasting home in heaven. No wonder we experience wanderlust in this life here on earth. We might live here or there but it's not our final destination. Our home is with Jesus, should you pick Him.

When the world sees enough of Christ in a believer, it persecutes that Christian the same way Jesus was persecuted (John 15:18–21). Rather than dreading that, believers should rejoice in knowing they're being identified with their savior (1 Peter 4:14).

1 PETER 4:14

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Simply put, "You are who are in Christ are not of this world."
