

RECONSTRUCTION IN THE MAKING

(PART 5)

SEPTEMBER 29, 2025

2 CHRONICLES 7:14 NKJV – (14) If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

Although 2 Chronicles 7:14 was originally addressed to the Israelites, its principles hold true for us today. As believers, we are called to humble ourselves, pray, seek God's face, and turn from our wicked ways. Through this, we can experience the transformative power of God's forgiveness and healing in our lives, families, churches, and nations.

In 2 Chronicles 7:14, we find an invitation from God to His people, urging them to humble themselves, pray, seek His face, and turn from wickedness. This verse offers a powerful reminder of the importance of repentance, prayer, and seeking intimacy with God. As we apply these principles to our lives, “THEN” we can experience the promise of forgiveness and healing, knowing that God hears our prayers and desires to restore and bless us. May we continually strive to walk in obedience and seek His face, trusting in His faithfulness.

SCRIPTURE READING: ISAIAH 45:19

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: Even if we don't repent, we could never say He doesn't love us.
